Dear EPA

This SIMPLE request was sent on June 6, 2017 for about 20 to 25 complete FOIAonline requests/appeals complete records with all fields, transactions, notes, etc.

It is well past the statutory deadline which was due on 7/7/17. This email stated that EPA FOIA request were being processed first in first out.

Reviewing FOIA records many FOIA request after my FOIA request have been processed and completed including EPA-HQ-2017-008738 filed almost 2 weeks after mine on 06/22/2017.

Please provide me the detailed progress because it also appears this FOIA/Privacy Act request was in Processing for a number of days without any production or update.

There should be no way later simple requests should have been processed before my request per your email first in first out.

Please explain ASAP.

Jim Chelmowski

Dear EPA,

Thank you for the fee waiver.

Per 5 USC 552(a)(6), this FOIA request EPA-HQ-2017-008256 and FOIA request EPA-HQ-2017-008255 is due in about a week.

I was forced to cancel my March 28, 2017 FOIA request EPA-HQ-2017-005390 because the EPA would not allow me the requester to write the my FOIA request discription instead require a very limited discription of records requested. Therefor the EPA would not be providing me the EPA records related to me. My requests are (and have been) more specific than the DOJ example see: <https://www.justice.gov/opcl/doj-privacy-act-requests>

The EPA Privacy Act has yet to confirm the Privacy Act Request that was emailed on March 28, 2017 and the new ones from June 9, 2017. I don't understand why my rights as an US Citizen is being denied.

Please explain why I am being ignored by the EPA and Judy Earle Privacy Act Officer.

I expect the EPA to fully compy with FOIA 5 USC 552 and Privacy Act 5 USC 552a regarding to EPA records related to me. Any withheld (with disclosure of records fully or partially) or redacted records must met both FOIA and Privacy Act exemption (not either or) per my rigths as an US Citizen.

James Chelmowski
